Being Successful as a Sophomore – 10th Grade

You know your student the best, so the following talking points are simply a guideline to use in starting a conversation with your 10th grader about ways to be successful as a sophomore.

- ▶ To get off to a great start to your sophomore year, let's get a head start on using your planner.
- ▶ Let's sit down and add all the events on your schedule. I can help you identify the days you will be out of school, holidays and family gatherings.
- ▶ This is the year you will want to identify a career goal. Let's get a head start on that by having you do the assessments on CareerOneStop.
- ▶ I can help by telling you about my observations of you and how that might relate to a future career.
